

THE DESTINY OF YOUR CITY

Is in play

cidade em JOGO

Cities in Play is a game developed so that high school students can try their hand at managing a city. The game is an innovative form of teaching the principles of citizenship and democracy in classrooms.

Over 100

Public policies available for players to choose from 3

Different types of cities that the player can choose to govern, from a small, rural city to a large metropolis

The game also includes a dedicated area for teachers, with suggestions about group dynamics and lesson plans to support game use in the classroom.
